

Wanted! Encounter Accompanists

- Are you an experienced Christian who has wisdom and experience that can be shared with others?
- Do you have a working knowledge of contemporary Methodism, including the candidating process?
- Can you help another individual to identify their gifts and skills and discern God's purpose for their life?
- Can you spare an hour (on average once a month) to offer support and encouragement to an individual on the programme?

Why not help your District by becoming an Encounter Accompanist?

Encounter is a programme of vocational discernment that helps Methodists to identify their gifts and explore the various opportunities for ministry and service. The Accompanist role is key to the programme which the District is due to run for nine months from January 2019.
